Enter Our World at HHS

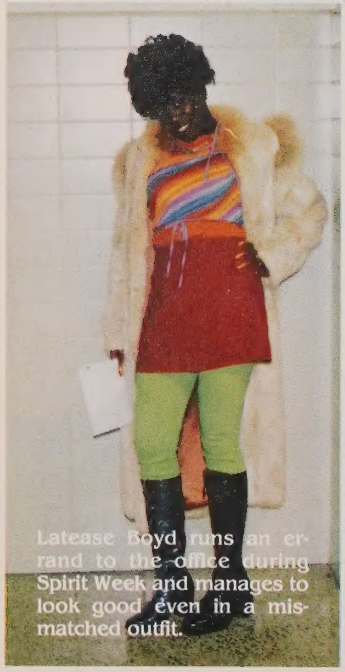
A high school kaleidoscope, like the child's toy, consists of many moments, moods, and activities. Our fleeting recollections of high school life probably will include assemblies, vocational and academic learning experiences, and special recognition for personal achievements, with a handful of humorous highlights sprinkled in-between. Student participation in clubs, organizations, sports, or other activities built a well-rounded individuals that came together to create Hopewell High School, a kaleidoscope of experiences that embodied both the laughter of Gender Bender Day and the tears of Graduation.

Checking attendance at a Friday afternoon assembly is Spanish teacher Mrs. Armentrout.

Learning machining skills that will prove profitable in the future is John Johnson.



Latease Boyd runs an errand to the office during Spirit Week and manages to look good even in a mismatched outfit.

Mrs. Keith and Mr. Aderholt congratulate Todd Ashley for superior work while Bobby Langford waits for recognition.

The Class

Of 1998

Center of the Kaleidoscope

When a person first looks into a kaleidoscope, all of the different pieces are at the bottom. As he or she lifts it to the light and rotates it, slowly the pieces come together to create a beautiful picture. At Hopewell High School the seniors are at the center of the Kaleidoscope. Like other graduating classes, we started off as intimidated freshmen. Completely disoriented with our new high school life, we were even a little scared. We wandered the halls from class to class trying not to ask the upperclassmen where to go, fearful that we would be directed to the imaginary elevator. However, now we have reached the pinnacle — our final year. As the Class of '98, we face the final turn — one last chance to be uninhibited and carefree.

However, many responsibilities lie ahead for us in the real world. We have been through unusual situations this year, including bomb threats. Getting to spend the day outside socializing and enjoying the time off had its consequences, nevertheless, as we had to make up those hours. Homecoming, college applications, Senior Dinner Dance, Prom and finally Graduation kept all seniors extremely busy. Receiving our senior privileges, such as special bathrooms and parking between the blue and gold lines, were once-in-a-lifetime experiences. Joining together in the coveted Senior Circle at the end of the pep rallies and marching into the auditorium were exhilarating experiences.

Hopefully, all seniors will be able to look back and smile with pride at the memories of Hopewell High School. It is only at graduation that we will make the final turn in the Kaleidoscope of high school life and march forward to all that the future holds for us.

Mr. Kaufman shows that he is truly a spirited class sponsor. He appears as the Blue Devil in the "Devil in the Box" homecoming float for the senior class. Riding on the float with Mr. Kaufman is Kristen Dane, Michael Hodge, and Leslie Flahart.

We, the Class of 1998, would like to thank Mr. Kaufman for his dedication and hard work. We want you to tell you how much you are appreciated by the seniors.

SPIRITED STUDENT LIFE

ALL THE PIECES FIT

Two Formal Dances:

Anticipation of a "Wonderful Tonight" began when students received the notices which stated, "You are invited to attend . . ." and continued with frantic preparations . . . for evening dress, exquisite hair-dos, party-style makeovers, and dinners for two or twosomes. Upon arrival at the Fort Lee Officers' Club, there was more-than-enough time for formal pictures, dancing, and visiting with friends. For those who stayed for the majority of the evening, the time spent with friends was too short. However, fond memories are sure to remain:

"Tonight a curtain closes,
and we take a final bow,
to the four years we have spent
which are slowly ending now.
But let time stop this evening,
for just an hour or two
As we recall the Memories that seem, right now, too few."

Entering the Officers' Club on Prom Night (May 24, 1997) are Justin Hios and Nikki Breeding with date Kitty Allen (front). Kitty Allen was named Homecoming Queen later that evening.

Posing for pictures are Rae Parker and Jason Klingman.

Within thirty minutes, the crowd of party-goers begins to dance to the music of "Magical Mystery Tour."

Two "Wonderful Tonights"

Main Office secretary Fran Johnson and senior Natalie Gregg teach the senior crowd the proper line-dancing techniques.

The two lovely couples are Nancy Nichols/Ryan Trickey and Chad Casey/Crystal Collins.

This table of seniors says, "It's time to eat."

Receiving the Diploma —

Friday, June 13 was a lucky, not unlucky day for graduating members of the Class of '97. While afternoon thunderstorms resulted in a change of location for the ceremony, friends and family of the graduates packed the sweltering gym. The heat was scarcely noticed as individuals approached the temporary stage in anticipation of receiving that coveted document — the diploma — and shaking Principal Keith's hand. As each graduate held his or her diploma for the first time, smiles radiated from faces as bright as Christmas candles on a snowy evening. A few students could not contain their excitement on stage, joining admiring family and friends in congratulatory cheers.

SCA President Jason Klingman mentally rehearses his speech while approaching the stage.

Mrs. Keith and longtime teacher Mrs. Townsend congratulate Jennifer on successfully completing her public education.

What a Feeling!

Semique Waller expresses the overwhelming emotions of receiving that long-awaited diploma.

True Devil Spirit was shown throughout the week of October 20 through the 24. These days included: Hat Day, Gender-Bender Day, Eighties Day, Mix-n-Match Day, and Blue and Gold Day. Although these dress-up days were fun, the final moment of anticipation had finally arrived — Friday evening. The Homecoming parade led the way as a spirited crowd gathered to cheer at the football game, played against Thomas Dale. Shouts of enthusiasm could be heard from blocks away as students and parents alike cheered for our boys in Blue and Gold as they ran out onto the field. Even the rain couldn't put a damper on our pride. We showed our school spirit by waving our colors high while our girls cheered at the top of their lungs. The energy level was so thick it could be cut with a knife. Even though the opposing team won, our football team did advance to regional play. Homecoming King Trey Henderson and Queen Karen Getty were announced during halftime and led the crowd to the Homecoming Dance.

kick back and relax." — Jared Dunn

Meeting All Expectations

Students on Fun Day participated in many small-scale but effective organizational fundraisers, such as the sale of photo buttons, candy, milkshakes, cookies, and brownies. Thirst-quenching was also required; luckily, the representatives from Josta were there to satisfy thirsts and to promote their new soft drink. Activities were varied, ranging from sports to games. As usual, gym teachers and coaches supervised events such as weight training, tennis, basketball, and baseball batting practice.

However, the most popular new event was the limbo contest (sponsored by the SCA), which drew many laughs from onlookers. The main excitement of late afternoon was when individuals had the chance to dunk teachers who volunteered to plunge themselves into the cold water tub. One of the teacher-volunteers, Mr. Fitch, challenged the students by stating, "Too little dunking, and so much time! Maybe next year, people will learn how to throw!" At 2:25 p.m., students returned to Seventh Period before being dismissed for the day.

— Kim Shank and Marchello Ferrara-Ragland

Leslie Flahart and M.K. Frederickson participate in the SCA's "Count the Jellybeans and Win a Prize" contest.

Showcasing their limbo talents are Larry Cherry and Phillip Sasser.

Mimi Craighead leads the group to show that girls can limbo just as well as boys.

The Hopewell kickoff team waits for permission from the referees to line up.

The 1997 Varsity Football team finished with a 7-3 record, our best since 1990. This was the second year in a row that the team elevated itself to the regional playoffs.

The team was led on offense by cocaptains Trey Henderson and Jason Taylor. Trey threw for an overall 1000 yards, to include 14 touchdowns. In addition, Trey ran for one touchdown and kicked for two field goals and twelve extra points. Jason Taylor, along with seniors Robert Davenport, Basile Papadopoulos, and fullback Justin Mathews, blocked and opened up big holes for senior tailback Chris Morse. As a result, Chris gained over 1200 yards on the ground, including 22 touchdowns, to gain fame as one of the leading scorers in the region.

On defense, Trey Henderson, Jason Taylor, Robert Davenport, and Justin Mathews were standouts, along with senior cornerback Rashad Baker, defensive end Tim Dent, and Rovee Danny Morissette. During the season, Trey Henderson set a school record for most combined tackles (121).

For the second year, the Devils were in the Regional Play-offs, Division 5. We lost to Lee-Davis, the #5-ranked team in AAA play, 29-23. Our defense held one of the state's best runningbacks to only 47 yards rushing out of 22 attempts. This was quite a feat considering that Lee-Davis had previously set a 200 yards-a-game average.

In postseason honors, Henderson was chosen All-Metro second team defensive back; Morse and Davenport received Honorabl Mention. The Mackey Award, presented by the Optimist Club, was given to Trey Henderson for his do-it-all style of play.

— April Truong

What was your most memorable moment?

A Fresh Breed of Roaring Devils:

The future stars of Hopewell football, the junior varsity team, closed out the season with a 6-3 overall record. Their vanquished opponents included Petersburg (13-6), Meadowbrook (22-0), and Colonial Heights (33-8) to close out the season. These young warriors showed the soon-to-be graduating seniors that Hopewell football was truly promising. The young men displayed teamwork and molded together as a unit during rough times. When asked about the best game of the season, Linebacker-Guard #66 Corey Jones responded, "Thomas Dale — because I had about twenty tackles in that game." The JV coaches played important roles in the development of team unity and perseverance demonstrated by individual team members. James Hicks stated that "I feel that they (coaches) were strict, but it was for our own benefit." The remaining football players concurred with that statement. By acting as mentors and role models for inexperienced junior players, the coaching staff turned prospective varsity contenders into better athletes and a fresh breed of roaring Devils.

Great Expectations Equals

The Varsity Field Hockey team rose to all expectations this season. Co-captains Karen Getty and Jennifer Ellis stated that they loved the game, in spite of the demands of the sport. Most individuals maintained a year-round training program, to include running and healthy dieting. Composure in competitive play is necessary for success, however. With all the experienced players remaining from previous years, the team felt the pressure to do well. The athletes felt that they had achieved a winning status after battling Central District powerhouse and previously unbeaten Thomas Dale to a 2-2 tie.

In Central District Tournament play, an early goal caught the HHS team by surprise and the Devils fell to the Knights. In regional play, the Devils played well but fell to a stronger James River team. All-District First Team honors were awarded to Melissa Miller, Samantha Jenkins, and Jennifer Ellis; Second Team honors to Amanda Kidd and Chrisel Spiers; and honorable mention to Karen Getty, Lisa Hedgepeth, Andi Papadopoulos, and Crystal Martin.

The 1997 JV Field Hockey team worked together as a team to accomplish many things, including the learning of advanced offensive and defensive skills. Team members mentioned being inspired by the varsity squad. "That team went to the Regionals and played a well-fought game. Even though they did not win, varsity team members won with their attitudes and desires." When asked if they would continue playing the sport as a varsity member next season, the girls were unanimous in answering "yes." According to Jamie Dunbar, even though the JVs did not always win, they played together well as a team.

Lets Go for the

The varsity cheerleaders have learned what it means to work as a team. Since cheerleading is an year-round sport, team members also learned extreme dedication. Because of this they were able to accomplish stunts at a higher level of difficulty than last year's squad which placed at the Nationals. The number-one goal for the cheerleaders this year was to place at the Virginia High School League state competition. While other local schools pay thousands of dollars for professional competition routines, the H.H.S. squad choreographs its own. Four of the senior girls are planning to try out for college level cheering: Candice Gill, Amber Frankenstein, Nathaly Lopez, and Kristen Royster and Joe Hopkins has already been selected to cheer at Longwood College. Evidently, the hard work has been worth the effort. The cheerleaders help raise school spirit, both in school and at athletic events. A cheerleader must strive for complete athleticism in order to cheer, participate in other activities, and keep up academically.

Serving Up Spirit:

The Boys' Tennis team demonstrated their Blue Devil spirit with every swing of its rackets. Always ready for self-improvement, individuals practiced the drills and were able to notch two wins. Michael Hodge commented, "we were returning with most of the team, although we did need some depth." Wesley Joyner described a difficult moment: "Beating Petersburg the second time around was tough without Billy (Pollard), who was in Florida on the senior trip. It was an emotional time and one of the doubles matches in which I played, but we won." Other team members were Bobby Langford, Andrew Vippermann, and John Wiseman.

ABSOLUTE TENNIS:

After winning their opening match against Dinwiddie, the Hopewell Girls' Tennis team showed much promise. Coach Lynn Smith was quoted as saying, ``After that first match the girls gained confidence and a new sense of hope, I could really see the sparkle in their eyes.'' However, that was only the beginning. By the end of the season, the Lady Netters had a 6-6 overall record. This was a huge improvement from the previous years as well as a great reflection of their achievements. Each girl had a strong role in influencing this record by showing what it really means to come together as a team.

Tee Time

Individual team members exhibited a very positive attitude towards golf in general. Not only do they practice as a group, but many spend extra time on weekends and evenings perfecting the sport. The hard work seems to pay off, as young members shot their way into a winning season. This year's golf team finished with 6-6 for the season and 8-6 overall. Donnie Barber received All-District Honors and Scott Jackson stated that "One of the highlights of my year was winning Medalist." The season ended with a fourth place finish at the Central District Tournament at Prince George. Overall, the many "tee times" in which the players engaged produced a productive season.

The 1997 Varsity Baseball team, which consisted of many young players, missed the playoffs by only one game. They ended up fifth in the Central District with five wins and seven losses. Without batting a lash, team member Johnathan Davis defended the team record by stating "We had a young team this year which learned many skills. We have much potential that will soon be fulfilled." Coach Saunders added, "We have five starters returning next season and the Devils hope to return to their winning ways. However, we came close to making the playoffs."

One bright spot for the Blue Devils was Derek Stanley, who was selected to the All-District Team as an outfielder for the second time.

From Start

Track:

The members of the 1997 Boys' and Girls' Track Team had a season filled with bright starts and finishes. The boys won their first meet of the season, a 75-50 victory over Colonial Heights. Highlights of the meet included Basile Papadopoulos winning first place in the shot and discus, with Danny Morissette second in both events; Rashad Myrick winning the long jump with Jovan Moore second; and Moore leading a sweep of the 100-meter event.

Against Prince George, the girls' efforts carried a Devil victory by a two point margin. Coach West commented, "Prince George has a large number of athletes and usually wins because of that depth, but in '97 our girls took enough first places to overcome their numerical strength." Flo Sample had three firsts — the long jump, the triple jump, and the high hurdles. Tippany Saunders won the high jump and 300-meter hurdles. A personal best and school record from freshman Nikki Dibling-Moore (12:38) in the 3200-meter event put the Devils ahead and the high hurdle sweep of Floretta Sample, Angela Watkins, and Tippany Saunders cinched the win.

Other track highlights and records of the season included Summer Shannon, 400-meter run (her mark of 1:03.79 broke a 15-year record); Floretta Sample, triple-jump (36˙5® ); Nikki Dibling-Moore, 1600 meters (5:50); Raven Bradley, Ta'mika Reese, Janiya Moore, Summer Shannon, 4 x 400 relay (4:29); and Raven Bradley, Ta'mika Reese, Summer Shannon, Cynthia Ibarra, 4 x 800 relay (11:34).

. . . and Running

The 1997 season was a rebuilding one for the Hopewell Cross Country team. With many first-time runners stepping up to contend with older challengers, Coach Whipp worked diligently to improve his talent. Highlights of the season included victories against Peterburg and Colonial Heights. Coach Whipp stated that if individual team members continued training on their own throughout the year, his hope was to defeat more rivals next season.

Indoor Track

This year has been a very successful year for the Indoor Track team. The teams of both the boys and the girls have done extremely well this season. In the middle of February, the team traveled to the famed Arthur Ashe center, where many of the runners placed. All the track members displayed excellent shows of sportsmanship and everyone tried their best for HHS.

Another Milestone

Cheering on Coach Littlepage are Maurice Vincent, Ronzell Monroe, Nick Sample and other loyal fans.

The 1998 Men's Varsity Basketball Team had a tough but rewarding season. The '98 team experienced one of the proudest moments in Hopewell basketball history. Coach Bill Littlepage was named the Virginia High School League's winningest coach (606) after our victory over Meadowbrook and was also named Coach of the famed McDonald's All-American Basketball Team (East Region).

Lacking the big front court and three point shooting guards that made up the state finalist team two years ago, the Devils struggled early. Coach Littlepage used several starting lineups as Hopewell continued to slowly improve. Everyone picked up his game, as the addition of freshman Kenya Williams immediately added to the offense, which took pressure off of early season scoring leaders Hiraman Byrd and Joel Miller. Hopewell played point for point against the central district's best and upset some of the league's better teams, including Dinwiddie, Colonial Heights, and Meadowbrook. The team lost a hard fought game to Prince George in the Central District Tournament to end another milestone season for HHS.

Starting Off With Victories

The JV Basketball team began its season with a perfect 4-0 start. The baby Blue Devils were very optimistic about having a very successful season. At one point the team was 8-3 and playing extremely well. However, after the semester exams the baby Blues lost four in a row before clinching the season final at Colonial Heights.

Overall, the JVs ended with a 9-7 season. The team was led by sophomores Adam Tiller, Brock Parker, Michael Whittington, Jared Wray, and Adam Clayton, with big help from freshmen Joemi Byrd and Lee White.

In spite of the difficulties, the team worked well as a unit and were very sportsmanlike." The team may not have come out on top in the district, but it was Number One in the hearts of the fans.

The J.V. team began its season with eight first-time players to add to its six returning players. ## A Girl's Best Friend

There is no doubt that the team headed onto the field with high expectations, but in the beginning all the pieces did not exactly fit. Competing against Manchester, the Devils lost 15-0. Lisa Hedgepeth added, "We still have many things we need to work harder on." Andi Papadopoulos commented, "If we all would have put forth more effort, we could have gone further." Coach Carlson began targeting improved fielding techniques.

Lori Collins stated, "We all (began) playing as a team. Everyone had great skills and the team was as strong as our weakest player. We all had fun by playing more with our hearts and less with our minds, (and our season improved)." During the third game of the season, the pieces began to come together with a victory over the Dinwiddie Lady Generals. A late-season win over Colonial Heights gave the Devils a second place tie in the Central District and a berth in the Central District Tournament, which was the final piece needed to fulfill all expectations.

Batting It Up for

"It doesn't matter if we win or lose as long as we play together as a team," said Lori Collins, one of the junior varsity softball's co-captains. Team work was a valuable asset to the success of the J. V. team. Of course, the players had their share of heartaches, but love of the game and positive attitudes enabled them to become wonderful representatives for Hopewell High School. One highlight of the season occurred during the game with Thomas Dale when Lori Collins' triple scored Meredith Dean for the only Hopewell run. April Lamm heightened the excitement of that game by having three putouts in center field. Team members are expecting and training for more excitement as varsity players.

The Hopewell High School wrestling team, with its strength and determination, had a extremely successful year, with an overall record of sixteen wins and two losses. The team pinned victories from teams such as Dinwiddie, Prince George, and Colonial Heights. The matmen also seized a first place (out of seventeen teams) at the Hopewell Wrestling Classic. Team members also captured first place at the Central District Tournament. Along with the team victory, five Hopewell athletes won individual championships: 103 lb. weight class — Josh Hoover; 112 lb. class (receiving his third district title) — Larry Haynes; 119 lb. class — David Rivera; 135 lb. class — Johnathan Pearson: 140 lb. class (receiving his second district) Trey Henderson. At the Regional meet, Larry Haynes repeated as 112 lb. champion and secured a 100th career victory; Trey Henderson finished second and brother Jim Henderson finished fourth in their respective weight classes. The team finished fourth overall in the regional competition. At the state level, Larry Haynes finished second to conclude his wrestling career. With their complete domination of the high school wrestling scene, the matmen showed other area schools that Hopewell is a powerful force in this sport.

Blue Devils Beat Knights for the First Time in Four Years

The Hopewell Boys' Varsity Soccer team started off on the right foot. This team treated its home fans to a 4-0 win over Highland Springs, but this victory was simply a beginning. By concentrating on skill-building drills, the Blue Devils were setting the stage for a surprise win over Thomas Dale, the league powerhouse team. Derek Daugherty's late goal prevented the opponent's rally and sealed the win for Hopewell.

Coach Breeden commented that the reason for the Devils' strength was the strong leadership of Brad Flynn. Flynn was a four-year starter and captain of the offense. Third-year starter included Randy Kern, John Buyalos, Tim Breeden, Chad Casey, and Pret Wells. Because of the vast expertise of his players, as well as the ability to play well in pressure situations, Coach Breeden felt that his team was able to compete with the best in the district.

J.V. Boys' Soccer:

1997 was a rebuilding and skills-building year for the Junior Varsity Boys' Soccer team. Many hours of practice resulted in vast improvements, although that fact was not necessarily reflected in the overall team record. Coach Tiller worked on both defensive and offensive skills, such as blocking and passing. In fact, team member Marchello Ferrara-Ragland noted that "two of the games we only lost by one goal and four others were lost by only two goals." With maturity and perseverance, the squad hopes to improve its record next season.

The Girls' Varsity Soccer team had a season to be remembered. Parental support helped tremendously, as "team mothers" such as Mrs. Slagle and Mrs. Parker were frequent fixtures at both home and away games, lending a kind ear when the game did not go Hopewell's way. Before games team members sat around circles on the field, chatting for motivational purposes in what came to be known as "buttercup talks." When asked about the best game of the season, Mrs. Patti Parker replied, "It was against Meadowbrook, when the Devils were underdogs but won 5-2."

Rebuilding With Heart

1997 was a rebuilding year for Coach Marvin Jones' junior varsity girls' soccer team. Many of the girls were new to the sport as well as to Hopewell High School. Coach Jones spent the spring season teaching them the basic fundamentals of soccer. Unfortunately, the record of 0 wins and 9 losses did not reflect the progress made by individual girls. Many were quoted as saying that if they had used more teamwork during practice and in games, then the season would have turned out better. Hopefully they will use this same mode of thinking in seasons to come.

Making Their Way to the Top

Junior Varsity cheerleading is the training ground for the varsity squad. Eighth graders were able to try out for the first time during the 1997-'98 season. As a result, two made the team (Lindsey Frankenstein and Dani Gill).

Because cheerleading is a three-season sport, team members really have to possess a true desire and commitment. JV cheerleaders practice every day, except on game days, to assure quality performances. Having the opportunity to attend the University of Virginia Cheerleading Clinic also sharpened their skills. The ultimate thrill was attending a college football game and performing cheers that the UVA cheerleaders had taught them.

As captain Alison Newman admits, "It is sometimes a difficult job telling my friends what to do." As team leader, Alison also had the responsibility of taking extra time to make sure everyone knew the cheers and contributed to spirit-raising activities such as making banners. Many hours were devoted to helping the others, who were all new team members, learn the cheers.

The Ashford — Hopewell Connection

In the summer of 1997, the Jazz Ensemble traveled to Ashford, England (which is the sister city of Hopewell). Each member of the Jazz Ensemble stayed with a family i England, which was a new experience for all our students. Mr. Lane and Mayo Saunders of Hopewell accompanied the group as chaperones. The Jazz Band played i many churches, public places, and for the Countess of England, Queen Elizabeth's firs cousin.

Student Art Gallery Opens

Our two art teachers, Mr. Cox and Mrs. Whitlock, along with the Art Club, converted an old computer equipment storage room into a student art gallery. The gallery held its official opening on Thursday, February 19 with Superintendent Dr. Stuckwisch as guest of honor. According to Mr. Cox, this gallery may be the only one of its kind in the state. The purpose of this art display is to encourage art appreciation among the students, as well as letting parents view student artwork. It also makes student artists feel that their work is appreciated.

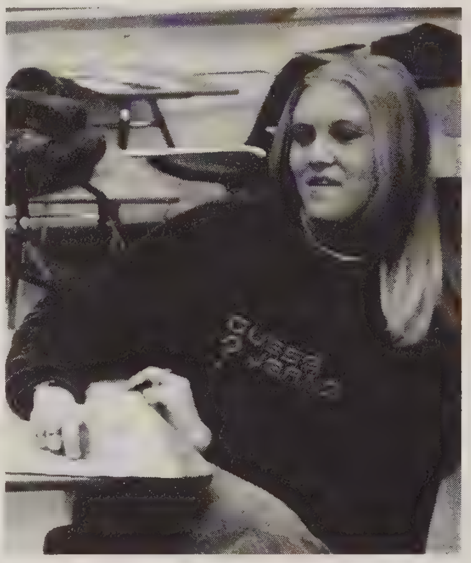
This year's staff consisted of many newcomers to the yearbook experience. There were only three members remaining from the previous year, which meant there was much learning to do. In the beginning, the staff struggled but was able to maintain organization and consistency. Members of the 1998 staff are Row 1: Kimberly Shank, Editor Jane Rayner, Beth Martin. Row 2: Ms. Longerbeam, April Truong, Kymberly Brown, Tammie Hanhart, Eric Walker. Row 3: Marchello Ferrara-Ragland, Monique Jennings, Kenneth Carter, Thermon Washington, and Shaka Dumas. The members of the 1998 staff have worked extremely hard to bring you this finished product. Many hours and a lot of effort went into this book, and we hope you enjoy it.

— Jane Rayner



The 1998 yearbook editor Jane Rayner organizes yet another layout.

Rachael McGee sits and contemplates her layout design.

Marchello Ferrara is working hard to make sure every line is draw

Beth Martin, hard at work on the index (a tedious and time-consuming job), sits back and relaxes for a few seconds. She is surprised by the flash of a camera pointed in her direction.

Kym Brown and Tammie Hanhart work to keep the yearbook staff organized.

Who are these crazy yearbook staff members posing as Cousin It?

Eric Walker and Kenneth Carter sort out the club pictures and make sure names match faces.

This year started off with a new staff. However, we worked out all the rough spots and made what we think to be a great yearbook. I would like to especially thank Ms. Longerbeam, because without her the yearbook would not have been possible. She deserves much credit for putting up with the staff and keeping us all in line. I would also like to thank the staff for all of their hard work and dedication. And last but not least, this book is for us the graduating class of 1998! SENIORS!

In Loving Memory of Jonathan Byas

We will think of you with love today, but that is nothing new. We thought about you yesterday, and days before that too.

In life we loved you dearly, and in death we love you still. In our hearts you hold a place that no one else can ever fill.

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone; for a part of us went with you the day God took you home.
